

AN INVITATION TO SERVICE PROVIDERS IN EAST HARTFORD

New Covenant United Methodist Church, along with the East Hartford Community Partners and Greater Hartford Legal Aid, is inviting service providers in East Hartford to a screening and community discussion of the CPTV documentary "The Color of Justice."

The showing of the documentary will be followed by a community panel regarding opportunities for youth, as well as alternatives in the juvenile system. Our panelists include Superintendent of Schools Nathan Quesnel, Representative Jason Rojas, and Chief of Police Scott M. Sansom. The movie and panel will be hosted by Pastor Gary Richards and the New Covenant United Methodist Church on November 20, 2014, from 9:00 AM to 10:30 AM. This is the first step in an initiative to begin a community conversation and identify positive action steps. We hope to bring together East Hartford community service providers who work with youth.

Please join us. See a great and informative film. Listen to the viewpoints and insights of our distinguished panelists. Share your opinions and help brainstorm how local community providers, like yourself, can make positive change for our youth.

November 20, 2014, from 9:00 AM to 10:30 AM
16 Church Street, East Hartford CT

---

Sponsored by New Covenant United Methodist Church, Greater Hartford Legal Aid, and East Hartford Community Partners.

RSVP to reserve a seat to nov20event@gmail.com

WELCOME TO
THE SEARCH FOR SOLUTIONS

the COLOR of Justice

STUDIES SHOW THAT ALL CHILDREN COMMIT EQUIVALENT CRIMES, BUT WHY ARE YOUTH OF COLOR BEING FUNNELED INTO THE JUVENILE JUSTICE SYSTEM AT ALARMING RATES?

PUBLIC FORUM

cptv Greater Hartford Legal Aid JUVENILE JUSTICE INSTITUTE